Nifty gaped up and crossed the PDH., but failed to continue. BOF of PDH gave a short signal.. As expected found support at BRN. Next signal was the LOL , BOF of PDC and PDL which moved well. Missed the big down move candle as there was no reliable signal before it happened. Note point "B". We will be tempted to go long here as BPB. Notice the topping tails of the candles. There was weakness.

Did look through but couldn't fathom what it really means. If you could explain would be good

LOL is two Decision points very closely positioned. Usually price will break the first and will fail to break the other.
