Nifty opened within previous day range. IR formed. Went short on BPB of IR low. I expected a move to PDL. But Nifty refused to move and I had to scratch. Nifty tried to break above IRL and channeled down. I expected a long trade on BOF of PDL or BRN 5700.. There was no week end short covering as I expected.

ST,

What time frame chart do you use for your intraday trades?
Is it 5 min or 3 min?

do you allow access to your analysis during market hours? or do you tweet live?

I think traders out here will be more than happy - if you allow access to your live analysis, you may charge them a reasonable membership fee (if you have a good track record - which I msure you have)

God bless
