30052013

Expiry day. Usually I stay out. Today tried just one trade that ended as a stop out. I shorted below the BRN on TST of PDH and BOF of range high . I expected it to go to the range low MSP

hi

While day trading nifty on the next day of expiry /starting of new month...which contract should we look at (june month/near month)?

Regards

Akshay

Icharts provides continuous near month contracts as NIFTY-1M. Once May expires June is appended to May data. There will be some minor problems as the expiry is always manipulated.
