03122013

Nifty opened within previous day range. It was trading around BRN 6200 of NS. Noticed two opportunities. Long above the morning MC and a short on BOF of Absorption level. Did not take them. Choppy day.

Hi ST,

Traded Bank Nifty today.

Went long as BRN 11300 didn't give way. TP at PDC. Shorted again at PDC as noticed a BOF. Again covered at BRN 11300.

Amazed to see how market follows its own levels.

Thanks,
VD

Sir today I made two profitable trades BPB at 11.23 bar for 10 points and risked that 10 point on pin bar at 14.02 candle only to make 10 more points. Thanks for your support.

One more request, can you just list out the your priority setups in order so that it will help us to learn more.

Regards

@TBS

I do not follow Bank Nifty regularly
Happy to know the levels are working.

BOF is always the best opportunity because of the order flow from trapped traders. then BPB,TST and FTC. Direct breakouts fail many times.

Do not forget the Location and SCORE

Adam H Grimes course is not accessible for the last one week. Just wondering weather everyone is getting the message " service temporarily not available"

Thank you

He may need to upgrade the site.
The current one don't have enough band width, I think.
