Gift from Dilipbhai

Here is another great gift from our beloved Dilipbhai. He has chosen the right occasion. First Sunday of August being the Friendship Day. I am sure all the friends of Nifty Nirvana will find it useful, will love it and cherish. He has compiled all the postings under "Rants n Raves" into a well formatted E-Book with great effort.

Dear Dilipbhai, Thank you very much for your contribution. God bless you.

You can download the book clicking the link. Kindly give your valuable feed backs. Please do not forget to thank our beloved Dilipbhai and please do share this through your social networks. Thank you all

I never felt trading lonely and stressful. It is stressful
1.till you find an edge in the market 2.till you achieve execution consistency 3.If you have unrealistic expectations.
I am really happy with my life now. I have enough time to attend to my family affairs. I have enough time to socialize.I am able to attend my aged parents.Freedom is what makes you happy.
If you have doubt, you just observe children. They will cry under two situations.When they feel physical pain and when something or somebody interferes with their freedom to do or not to do something. Trade,enjoy freedom and be happy
