Structure and Patterns(E-Book)

For a long time I was thinking about making all the important posts in an E-Book format. I could not do it because of time constraints and of course because of my laziness. Surprisingly I received a mail yesterday morning from Shri. Dilip Patel from Gujarat. I was pleasantly surprised to see the E-Book attached with the mail..

He has compiled all the posts under Structure and Patterns into a beautiful E-Book. The book is really a professional work. Well formatted with live hypertexts and book marks. Apart from this he has compiled all the posts of 2013 in PDF format which I will upload later

Dilipbhai, Thank you very much for the selfless service. I am sure that this book will be very useful to the blog readers. This will serve as a ready reckoner of DP concepts and a casual read to brush up the ideas once in a while. You can download the book clicking here. Please do not forget to thank our beloved Dilipbhai..

@Dilipbhai --- Thank you so much for the reckoner...:) God Bless...

@ST -- I have heard, when you put your heart and soul in the work which you do, Universal power will make sure that you get what you need at precise time.. Now this e book has come to me (DP traders like me) at the right time I would say. I would like to thank you too for this selfless service..

Cheers!

Dilip bhai Sir,
Thank you so much. Thanks to this ebook, we will read the important posts of this blog once more. Every read throws open some new knowledge, hitherto not understood.

Thanks Dilipbhai,
Thanks ST for giving this blog as a platform for us to meet & made us think of sharing instead of hiding our strategies.. Our Thought process is really changing !!
