Nifty gaped up above PDH. IR formed. Went long on FTC below IRL. . Next one was a short trade on BOF of IR High. This trade did not move as expected. Scratched it.

Today's open and low are same for NF(6007.50), which is PDC. There is no gap up today in NF. gap up open only for NS.

Thanks for the visit and comment. Totally focused on NF intraday 3M charts.No overnight holdings. I am marking my entries by an arrow. I think I will never be able to perfect the exit. In fact I regret after every exit.

If the data missing, will it affect our reading on charts?

Adhi

There will be some confusion.

We are trading the price action at identified levels. Maximum damage is a stop out trade.
