Nifty moved within a 30 point range the whole day. Attempted a BOF of Range High. Scratched it later. Price was hanging around 6300 of Spot Nifty. NF was trading at a premium of 50 points. I think there was a BPB of PDH/PDC for those who traded NOV contract chart. Levels may differ as I was trading the continuous current chart. Wish you all a happy Diwali and profitable Samvat 2070.

Sir,

Would you like to share your yahoo chat id or email?

Thanks

I prefer comments to mail if it is related to trading. Reason is all the readers can benefit from it. If it is not about trading and something personal my ID is niftyinirvana at g mail.

ST,

I happened to use the Nov series chart and there was a BOF of PDH. What in your view is a better option - to use continuous series or the current series chart

No such preference. Trade what you see in your chart.
What difference it makes ? You may miss a trade or may get stopped out of a trade. These are all irrelevant in the big picture and in the long run
