Nifty Gaped down below PDL, but immediately climbed back to previous day range. BPB of PDL gave a long signal. This trade tested the patience but finally gave good points. BOF of HOD gave a short. Not a bad trade.

Got both but still need to work on patience to exploit the full potential after entering. The first entry really tested patience, as it far exceeded the 20 minute timer.

The second was relatively easy, especially after the 3 or 4 consecutive dojis on the 3min charts at around 5280 levels.

Perfect exits never happen.

But mistakes will come down as we gain experience
