Quote of the Day

"Information is everywhere but as a trader or investor it is your job to find what you can act on. It goes back to the two types of people. Those that want to read about trading and those that want to trade. It appears on the surface that one transitions into the other but it does not always work out that way. Understand why you are seeking out the information you are seeking out and if it gets you closer to your goals."

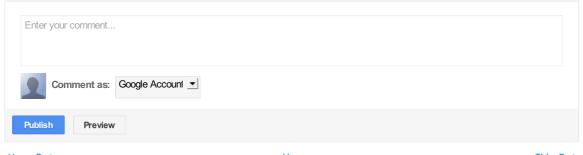

Eli Radke
