22042015

Nifty opened near PDC and moved up. Got rejected from RN and fell. Long on BOF of BRN which failed to move beyond NS RN. Short on BPB of PDL which moved well. Price refused to go below NS BRN 8300 and bounced back. Could not capture the up move. Order above BRN 8400 did not trigger.

I amnot familiar with crude But I think it is OK to go long on BOF of PDL It looks like a LOL with a major flip and PDL

what was your fixed target on Your First trade. because DO,PDC and NS BRN is 22 points from your entry.

Also because your were long that made you to not to go short immediately at BOF of 8425 (DO/PDL/NS BRN).

Please share your thoughts

Thanks, Aristatle.S

My expectation was a range between BRN and HOD-RN for a while. So I hesitated to enter in the middle zone.
