28022012

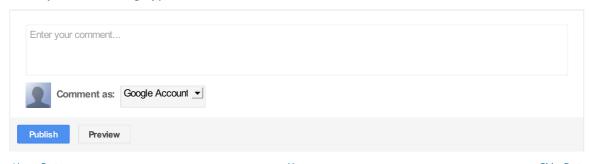

Nifty Gaped up above the previous pivot high. Expectation is move inside the previous day range. BOP of previous day pivot high gave a long. There were no significant levels within the move. First trade gave good profit. Second BOF also gave some profit. I expected a sell off after the DT, HOD breakout failure which was also around the Friday bottom and PDO. A breakeven trade I wonder why Nifty is trading at such a high premium.
